

Boosting engagement to increase flexibility

The European Commission's clean energy legislation requires flexible electricity markets to be established together with active customers, consumers, citizens and energy communities.

We aim to increase the flexibility of energy systems, improve cooperation among Distribution System Operators (DSOs) and Transmission System Operators (TSOs), and encourage all energy-related stakeholders to participate.

4 YEARS

7 COUNTRIES

20 PARTNERS

10,5 M€

11 pilots in 4 countries in 3 different demos structured by climatic areas (South-Mid EU, North EU and South-West EU) covering EU's different representative climates.

www.beflexible.eu

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them

